TO THE FINISH

This next week finishes our calendar year. We may not be able to clean out every thing that we would like to, but we are coming very near to it. Yes, nearer than for several seasons past. We will put onto our counters Monday all odds and ends, also all goods that we are willing to take a loss on to close that week as follows:

FIRST

This will attract more than any other January sale, and that is this:

All of our short lengths and Remnants, every short piece that we have anywhere in the store.

Remnant of Damask, Dress Linings and all short lengths.

SECOND

This stocktaking sale hits hard and deep in our Garment Department.

Little Coats for the young ladies that are just as good for next season as for this, now at but a part of their cost.

Coats for the little ones at half price and for the older ones at only about one-third of the original price. We loaded heavier on the larger sizes, is the reason for such a big break in price.

THIRD

On our tables for this week are what we have left of Waistings and Kimono Cloths.

All of our Wool Waists now in this week's sale. Commencing Monday morning at nearly half price, while they last, or all of this stock-taking week.

Muslin Waists that have become a little soiled from Christmas handling now at less than cost.

After this week's sale you will begin to get Spring goods. There are lots of things in this sale that you can make a large saving on.
